Tom,

I have completed review of the updated Mine Plan and concur that a bond amount of $112,668 is adequate. The update does not constitute a substantive change to the Plan of Operations. Therefore, pursuant to 43 CFR 3809.432 (b), the minor modification is accepted without formal approval by BLM.

Thanks,

I have reviewed the Rim large Mine Plan we received on February 1, 2010 and find it acceptable for approval with the $112,668. bond adequate. Could you let me know if you approve this updated plan.
